Purpose

This manual defines technical rules for location, administrative hierarchy, code generation, and address lifecycle.

Administrative hierarchy

- Province.
- District, municipality, or applicable administrative unit.
- Local area, territory, road, building, or address point.
- Official address code once the record is approved.

Location rules

- GPS capture or map point as location evidence.
- WGS84 reference system for latitude and longitude coordinates.
- Separation between field evidence and public publication.
- Manual correction under operator review where evidence requires it.

Lifecycle

- Citizen request or field capture.
- Evidence review.
- Promotion to official registry.
- Hold before publication.
- Publication, certificate, or signage only after approval.
