

CONFIDENTIAL DISCUSSION PROPOSAL

National Digital Addressing System Proposal

National Digital Addressing System Proposal — a government-owned national addressing infrastructure program giving every home, building, business, institution, and service point an official physical and digital address.

Prepared by BeCoreOps Equatorial Guinea

Prepared for formal government discussion and printing/submission.

Citizen digital address layer included: search, share, verify, correct, print, and use official addresses for services.